Luxair started to operate its flights to Turin

Today, Luxair Luxembourg Airlines operated its first direct flight to Turin from Luxembourg.

Starting from today 7 November, Luxair Luxembourg Airlines operates direct flights connecting Piedmont's capital to the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg.

Due to the numerous headquarters of international corporations, Turin is an attractive destination for business travelers as well as for leisure travelers, and of course avid culinary travelers who want to discover the varied gastronomic landscape of Piedmont. During the winter season, Turin is the ideal destination for winter sports enthusiasts as the nearby ski-resorts are less than 1 hour away. Flights are available for reservation from €99 return incl. taxes.

The four connections are scheduled as below:
