Connections to Dublin, Venice and Copenhagen will be reinforced this winter

The Luxair Luxembourg Airlines' winter flight plan has just come into force.

The change of season took effect as of 29 October 2017. This winter, Luxair Luxembourg Airlines will be optimising routes to three destinations. So, 3 weekly flights to Venice will be available, for the first time during the winter period, and up to 3 daily flights to Copenhagen will be offered. Since 18 September 2017, an evening flight has been added to Dublin, which will also be operated throughout the winter season. The afternoon flight will however not be operated.

Please find the detailed flight plan for these 3 destinations on the next page.
